OBITUARIES

Brian Carneal

A memorial service for Brian Carneal, who died on Oct. 13, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 21, at the Ethical Society, 1906 S. Rittenhouse.

Carneal was born July 31, 1963, in Richmond, Va. He lived in Washington, D.C., for many years with his companion, Roy Mason. In 1990, he moved to Wilmington, Del., where he resided on the duPont estate and pursued his passions for collecting unusual antiques, music, and entertaining friends.

As requested, he was able to spend his final days in Philadelphia with his friends.

He is survived by his father, sister and brother and many friends. His high energy, loving and eccentric character will be remembered.

Memorial contributions may be sent to the Brian Carneal Animal Defense Fund, P.O. Box 558, Arlington, Va. 22216. ▼

John David Adair, John S. Mix

A memorial service will be held Oct. 28 for John David Adair and John S. Mix, who died in August after having been shot Aug. 6 at their home in Rancho Mirage, Calif.

Adair, a Philadelphia native, was an activist in the gay and lesbian rights movement here until 1988, when he and his then-lover, Bob Tucker, moved to California. Tucker died of complications of AIDS in 1991. Adair and Mix subsequently met in California, and were united in a commitment ceremony at Fairmount Park. The two shared homes in Los Angeles and Rancho Mirage.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Oct. 28 at St. Luke and the Epiphany Church, 330 S. 13th St. ▼
