OBITUARY

Robert A. Gallagher

Robert A. Gallagher, 35, died April 4 of AIDS.

A resident of King of Prussia and Bridgeport, Gallagher was a graduate of Penn State, and was employed as office manager at his family's construction business. He was involved in a number of activities within the gay community, including participation in the gay bowling league.

Gallagher is survived by his parents, Rose and William Gallagher; a brother, Bill; and his lover and life partner of five years, José Cebollero.

Family funeral services were held in April 9 in Bridgeport. A memorial celebrating Gallagher's life will be held from 4 to 8 p.m. May 19 at Rodz Restaurant, 1418 Rodman St.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Philadelphia AIDS Task Force, 1642 Pine St., Philadelphia, Pa. 19103. ▼
